PUBLIC NOTICES

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 20th January, 1960

SUBJECT:—Cotton Textiles Export Incentive Scheme—Import Entitlements against exports of certain fabrics made out of cotton cloth.

No. 12-ITC(PN)/60.—It has been decided that with effect from the quarter October/December, 1959, import licences under the Cotton Textiles Export Incentive Scheme for import of coal tar dyes, textile chemicals, gums, etc., as specified in the Annexure to the Ministry of Commerce and Industry Public Notice No. 87-ITC (PN)/58 dated 31st October, 1958 against exports of bed tickings, bags, pillow cases, bed spreads and bed sheets made out of cotton cloth (other than handloom cloth) will be granted in the manner specified below:—

	Value of import entitlements against exports.
(1) Mills manufacturing for export bed tickings, bags, pillow cases, made-up bed spreads and bed sheets from cloth produced by them.	2% of the F.O.B. value of the articles exported.
(2) Exporters exporting bed tickings, bags, pillow cases, made-up bed spreads, bed sheets.	2% of the F.O.B. value of the articles exported.
(3) Mills whose cloth is utilised in the manufacture of bags, bed tickings, pillow cases, made-up bed spreads and bed sheets.	2% of the F.O.B. value of the fabrics exported, provided that such mills supply the cloth in bond to the makers of the said fabrics and provided further that the mill produces to the Textile Commissioner, Bombay, such evidences as may be required by him for this purpose.

N.B.—In case the manufacturer of the cloth used in the making of the fabrics exported and the exporter of the fabrics are one and the same person, he will be entitled to claim licences equal to those admissible under the respective categories as the manufacturer of the basic cloth as well as the exporter of the made-up articles.

Applicants should apply for import licences for coaltar dyes, textile chemicals etc. to the Joint Chief Controller of Imports and Exports, Bombay, in the manner prescribed, after obtaining from the Textile Commissioner, Bombay, certificates of import entitlement to which they may be eligible in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed by him. Licences will be granted once in a quarter on the basis of the exports effected in the preceding quarter.

It has further been decided that manufacturers of the cotton cloth used in bed tickings, bags, pillow cases, made-up bed spreads and bed sheets exported, will also be eligible to receive import entitlements for cotton upto the same percentage as is permissible against exports of cotton cloth under the above said Incentive Scheme in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed by the Textile Commissioner for claiming the permissible import entitlements in this regard.

Detailed procedure for submission of applications in respect of the articles herein included to receive the benefit of the import entitlement under the Incentive Scheme will be announced by the Textile Commissioner in due course.

SUBJECT:—Cotton Textiles Export Incentive Scheme—Import entitlements against exports of readymade garments made out of cotton cloth.

No. 13-ITC(PN)/60.—It has been decided that with effect from the quarter October/December, 1959 import entitlements against exports of readymade garments made out of cotton cloth will be granted under the Cotton Textiles Export Incentive Scheme in the manner specified below:—

Value of import entitlements against exports

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| (1) "Exports" and "Manufacturer-Exporters" of readymade garments or apparels (stitched) made out of cotton cloth. | 10 per cent of the F.O.B. value of the ready-made garments or apparels exported. |
|---|--|
2. The import entitlement specified above will be for import of
- (a) Coaltar dyes, textile chemicals etc. as specified in Annexure to the Ministry of Commerce & Industry Public Notice No. 87-ITC(PN)/58 dated 31st October, 1958;
  - (b) Zip fasteners, buttons, elastics, snap fasteners and trimmings for use in the making of readymade garments or apparels;
  - (c) Industrial power sewing machine and their accessories, sewing needles which are not indigenously available;

Provided that

- (i) the articles specified in (b) and (c) above shall be licensed only to manufacturer-exporters of readymade garments or apparels.
- (ii) only such articles and varieties of the items referred to in (b) and (c) above as are permissible for import at present or at any time in future in accordance with the Government's Import Policy, will be licensed.
- (iii) so far as articles permissible for import as at (b) above, the value of the import licences will be limited to such reasonable quantities as the Textile Commissioner may consider proper in the circumstances of each case.

3. "Exporters" and "Manufacturer-Exporters" of readymade garments or apparels importing coaltar dyes, textile chemicals etc., under this Scheme will be required to sell the imported articles only to any unit of the textile industry requiring these items, whether such unit is a manufacturer or a processor of textiles (cotton, wool or artsilk). In other words, the imported dyes and chemicals will be permitted to be sold to any unit of the textile industry taken as a whole. The sales in such cases will, however, be subject to the condition that the transactions should be reported with sufficient details as to the description of the stores, the quantities and the prices involved, to the Textile Commissioner, Bombay, within seven days of the date of the transaction.

4. Manufacturer-exporters of readymade garments or apparels should in the first instance register themselves with the Textile Commissioner. Only exports effected by registered manufacturer-exporters of readymade garments or apparels will qualify for receiving import entitlements under the scheme.

5. Mills whose cloth is used in the manufacture of readymade garments exported by manufacturers of readymade garments, will be eligible to receive import entitlements for import of cotton on the ex-mill value of the cloth used in the manufacture of readymade garments exported subject to manufacturer-exporter of readymade garments or apparels observing and fulfilling the following conditions:—

- (1) Manufacturer-exporter of readymade garments will nominate a mill or mills from whom the cloth will be purchased by him for the manufacture of readymade garments for export.
- (2) The Manufacturer-Exporters of readymade garments shall supply to the Textile Commissioner, Bombay samples of the cloth from which the garments or apparels are manufactured for export together with a tabulated statement as to the quantity of cloth proposed to be purchased for manufacture of readymade garments, the name and address of the Mill from which the cloth will be purchased, the period during which the purchase will be completed and the approximate quantity of cloth which would be required in the manufacture of each variety of the garments or apparels to be exported.

6. On the value of the cloth sold and delivered by a Mill to a manufacturer-exporter of readymade garments for the manufacture and export of garments, the Textile Commissioner shall, on receipt of evidences as to the garments having been exported, determine the value of the cloth on which import entitlement for cotton shall be permissible for the Mill. The import entitlement for cotton shall be at 66<sup>2</sup>/<sub>3</sub> per cent of the value of the cloth as determined by the Textile Commissioner. Manufacturer-Exporter of readymade garments or apparels will not be eligible to receive import entitlement for cotton. In the event of the exporter of readymade garments or apparels and the Mill producing the basic cloth happen to be one and the same person, on the ex-mill value of the cloth actually used in the garments or apparels exported, the Mill will be eligible to receive import entitlement for cotton upto the percentage specified in this paragraph.

7. Details of the procedure for claiming import entitlements by exporters of readymade garments or apparels will be announced by the Textile Commissioner, Bombay. Issue of import licences will be by the Joint Chief Controller of Imports and Exports, Bombay, on certification by the Textile Commissioner of the value of the import entitlement. Licences will be granted once in a quarter on the basis of exports effected in the preceding quarter.

Explanation.—The terms “readymade garments or apparels” shall, for the purpose of this Public Notice be deemed to mean article or articles made out of cotton cloth suitably cut in sizes and stitched for purposes of human attire, but shall not include within its meaning any article made out of hosiery knitted tubular fabrics.

K. T. SATARAWALA,

Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
